

FINAL BILL REPORT

HB 1536

C 94 L 09
Synopsis as Enacted

Brief Description: Concerning permits for and advertising by household goods carriers.

Sponsors: Representatives Clibborn, Roach, Eddy, Morris and Simpson; by request of Utilities & Transportation Commission.

House Committee on Transportation
Senate Committee on Transportation

Background:

The Washington Utilities and Transportation Commission (UTC) regulates several types of transportation companies, including household goods movers, who are required to obtain a permit from the UTC before operating. All of these regulated transportation companies are subject to a series of public safety and consumer protection requirements, including:

- obtaining and maintaining liability and cargo insurance;
- providing information to consumers regarding services and pricing;
- charging only the proper rates for services rendered;
- conducting background checks of potential employees' driving records;
- maintaining a drug and alcohol testing program for all employees; and
- maintaining specific vehicle safety levels.

The UTC's employees conduct safety and consumer protection audits of permitted companies to ensure statutory requirements are met. The UTC is also empowered to impose penalties for a company's failure to comply with these requirements.

Summary:

The definition of household goods carrier is expanded to include carriers who advertise, solicit, offer, or enter into agreements to transport household goods by motor vehicle in exchange for compensation.

Current exemptions from regulation are eliminated for household goods carriers that operate within cities with populations of less than 30,000 or between two contiguous cities with populations of less than 30,000.

This analysis was prepared by non-partisan legislative staff for the use of legislative members in their deliberations. This analysis is not a part of the legislation nor does it constitute a statement of legislative intent.

A violation is created for engaging in or attempting to engage in the business of transporting household goods without a permit. This violation includes advertising, soliciting, offering, or entering into an agreement regarding the transportation of used household goods. The penalty for a violation is up to $5,000 for each occurrence of operating or advertising without a permit and up to $10,000 for each violation of a cease and desist order.

Household goods carriers are required to provide a physical address and telephone number in all advertising and correspondence.

Carriers whose operating authority has been cancelled by the UTC are required to notify customers and provide proof of such notice to the UTC.

Votes on Final Passage:

House	93	2
Senate	41	3

Effective: July 26, 2009